LICENSE

This matter comes before the South Carolina Department of Insurance (the Department), upon application of David E. Belton, Esquire, Senior Associate General Counsel for the Department, requesting the revocation of Dorlisa T. Young's (Producer) resident producer's license.

In the State of South Carolina, the producer failed to report change of address to the Department.

In the State of South Carolina, the producer failed to respond to the notice of investigation sent via regular and certified mail through the United States Postal Service, after acknowledging its receipt on January 25, 2007.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-130(A)(B)(C)(6) (A) "The director or his designee may place on probation, revoke, or suspend a producer's license after ten days' notice or refuse to issue or reissue a license when it appears that a producer has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, has violated this title or any regulation promulgated by the department, or has willfully deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State." (B) "For purposes of this section, 'convicted' includes a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, and the record of conviction, or a copy of it, certified by the clerk of court or by the judge in whose court the conviction occurred is conclusive evidence of the conviction." (C) "The words 'deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State' include, but are not limited to, action or inaction by the producer as follows:" (6) "having been convicted of a felony." As a result of Dorlisa T. Young being found guilty and convicted of a felony for Breach of Trust with Fraud Intent, >$5,000.00 in the Greenville County Court of General Sessions, the Department now moves to revoke her producer's license.

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-107(A) "If an individual applies for an insurance producer's license he shall supply the department his business, mailing, and residence street address. The producer shall notify the department within thirty days of any change in legal name or in these addresses. (B) Failure to inform the insurance director or his designee of a change in legal name or address within this period shall result in a penalty pursuant to Section 38-2-10." Thus, as a result Dorlisa T. Young's failure to notify the Department of her current address, she caused the Department difficulty in corresponding with her.

THEREFORE, it is ordered that Dorlisa T. Young, a South Carolina resident producer license shall be revoked thirty (30) days from the date of this order, and no license issued through the state of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to her, unless Dorlisa T. Young requests in writing within said thirty (30) day period a public hearing before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the National Association of Insurance Commissioners be immediately notified of this order.

This South Carolina Department of Insurance administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2000). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report." S.C. Code Ann. §38-3-110(3) (Supp. 2000).
